- In case of new applications, kindly attach duly filled in application form along with registration cum NACH (National Automated Clearing House) mandate form. Any other format of request will be rejected.
- Completed application form, SIP auto debit/NACH form & first cheque should be submitted at Baroda Asset Management India Limited (AMC) offices or KARVY ISC's atleast 30 days prior to first SIP cycle date.
- 3. New investor in to the Fund should mandatorily give a cheque for the first transaction drawn on the same bank account which is to be debited under NACH/Auto Debit. In case the 1st cheque is issued from an A/c which is different from NACH /auto debit A/c, then a copy of cheque from NACH/ auto debit A/c as mentioned on the application form should be submitted.
- The bank mentioned in NACH request must participate in local MICR clearing. MICR code starting and/or ending with "000" are not valid for NACH.
- The AMC, the Registrar and other service providers shall not be responsible and liable for any financial loss that may be incurred by the investor with regard to SIP registration process, including any issue relating to NACH or auto debit registration.
- 6. Should the investor wish to cancel the SIP registration, the cancellation request shall be submitted 21 working days prior to the next SIP cycle date.
- 7. Should the investor wish to change the Bank Mandate any time during the currency of SIP, he / she should tick the appropriate box in the Mandate Form, fill in the revised bank details and submit the same to AMC or its Registrar and Transfer Agent. Such revised form must be submitted 30 days prior to the next SIP Cycle date.

- 8. Existing investors who wish to restart their SIPs, are required to submit NACH form duly signed by the bank account holder(s), indicating the existing Folio No. & investment details in the Form & submit the same along with the copy of a cancelled cheque / photocopy of the cheque, drawn on the same bank account registered in the SIP form.
- 9. Should an investor opt for a monthly SIP, the minimum number of months for which the investment will have to be made (SIP Period) shall be 6 months and the minimum investment amount (SIP Amount) shall be ₹ 1,000/- per month. Should the investor opt for a quarterly SIP, the SIP Period shall be 4 quarters and the SIP Amount shall be ₹ 1,500/- per quarter. Investors should note that the first SIP cheque and subsequent SIP installments should be of the same amount.
- 10. The Registrar will reject a Micro SIP application where it is found that the registration of the application will result in the aggregate of Micro SIP installments in a financial year exceeding Rs.50,000 or where there is any deficiency in the application form or any supporting document In case the first Micro SIP installment is processed (as the cheque may be banked), and the application / supporting document is found to be defective, the Micro SIP will be ceased for future installments. No refunds shall be made for the units already allotted. Investor, can however, redeem the units if so desired.
- 11. The investor(s) agrees to discharge the responsibility expected of him/them as a participant/s under NACH and hereby confirm adherence to the terms of the mandate. The investor(s) has/have authorized use of their contact details mentioned on the form/NACH mandate for the purpose of processing the mandate instruction and further authorize the bank(s) to debit the investor's account for any charges towards mandate verification, registration, transactions, etc. as may be applicable.
